Parent Feedback

What more could the school do to support families?

- Provide more Teaching Assistants to help the children
- I think the school already does a good job. Clear communication with parents and understanding when children are unwell or families experience difficulties would always be helpful. I appreciate the school's support and approach
- Just be there for parents

What do you think we can improve on?

- Communication needs to be earlier not 1 or 2 days before an event. More time for parents to prepare.
- Perhaps more regular updates for parents about children's progress, classroom activities and meal's would be helpful
- Home work

What are the strengths of the school?

- A range of subjects and teachers who are involved
- Pastoral
- Enthusiastic of the children's future and learning abilities
- Children's Saftey
- The school has a welcoming, friendly and supportive environment The staff are kind and caring, and I really appreciate the way they make children feel comfortable and happy. My daughter loves going to school and is always excited to learn and take part in activities. This means a lot to us as parents
- Supports medical needs suffiently
- Communication
